Sourced from the Beverly and Four Feathers Vineyards. Both of these vineyards have low-yielding vines which produce smaller clusters and berries, resulting in intense varietal flavors and deep color. The bright floral nose of this Cabernet Sauvignon opens to flavors of cola, ripe cherries, fresh blackberry, and cinnamon with a delicate texture. The finish is intense, yet silky.

Kiona was the first winery to produce Lemberger in 1980. This bright, medium-bodied fruit forward wine surprises many with its unique characteristics. It carries a vibrant, well-balanced palate along with plenty of earth and spice that showcases Red Mountain's unique terroir. This wine goes to show that Red Mountain is well-suited to varietals well outside the standard set.

Owen Roe 'Abbot's Table'

Bin #506
Owen Roe
2014
Zinfandel, Sangiovese, Merlot,
Malbec, Blaufränkisch
Columbia Valley, Washington
$50

At Owen Roe, we are committed to practicing the highest standards of winemaking. Since our first vintage in 1999, our goal has been simple; to produce beautiful wines from superior sites in the Pacific Northwest. A place where the fruit ripens slowly and fully, resulting in excellent acidity and balance. All of our grapes are hand harvested, handled with minimal processing, small-lot fermented and aged in French oak barrels.

The deep ruby-hue of this well known red blend is full of beautiful aromatics. Notes of dark cherry, plum, blackberry and spice become complex on the palate with hints of rich vanilla essence, tobacco, toasted nuts and pepper. Gripping tannins and a robust mouthfeel are nicely balanced with lingering acidity. This wine has the ability to shine for over a decade.

The flavor is a broad generous entry with a plush mid palate and a long pleasing finish.
